

Presentation of the Best Practice Guidelines for a final consultation prior to publication. It is hoped that prior to the NTE a draft version will be circulated to delegates who select this parallel session so that it can be read in advance.
A plan for further dissemination will be discussed during the session and feedback discussed.