

PMG Journal: Product Report

There is a charge for having a product report published in the PMG Journal; for further information please contact pmgadmin@btinternet.com If your product report is selected for publication, we will invoice you.

Please complete the information in the table below, then forward the completed table to pmgadmin@btinternet.com along with your article in a separate file. Please note the following:

- Format all text in 11 point Cambria (Times New Roman is acceptable if Cambria is not available).
- Indicate paragraph titles by typing them in bold type.
- Supply photographs and tables as separate files (e.g. EPS, TIFF, JPEG), and label each file to match its legend. Also indicate within the article where each file should be placed.
- If there are references, use the author-date (Harvard) style. References can be generated via the 'references' tab in Word (choose Harvard style). Please refer to our Guidelines for References.
- Also refer to our Confidentiality Policy regarding consent for use of images and information, and anonymising client / patient information.

PRODUCT REPORTS: Please include the following:

- The reason for the development/modification of this product.
- The design criteria. What does the product do?
- Describe the client group that might benefit from the product and why.
- Describe how this product differs from similar products.
- Let members/readers know if you are interested in running any clinical trials and gathering feedback for further development of the design.
- Any photo/s or picture/s should be supplied separately - i.e. the submission should not be formatted as an advert.

The PMG editorial team reserves the right to amend articles during proofing, and will consult contributors where necessary.

We thank you very much on behalf of the group for submitting your article – your contribution is greatly appreciated.
